Dear Mr. Niewenhuis:

I would like to thank you for South Dakota Walleyes Unlimited Scholarship. This money is well appreciated, and will help me continue my studies in the wildlife and fisheries field. Finding the means to pay for college is becoming harder in these economically trying times, and it is because of scholarship patrons like yourself that gives us a chance to succeed. I would just like to thank you again for this opportunity.

I will be finishing my college career South Dakota State University this upcoming fall. I have enjoyed my time learning about fisheries over the past few years and I am looking forward to applying my knowledge throughout my career. I have worked as the technician for a few of the graduate students at SDSU and come to adore the fisheries world these past few years. I have always dreamed of working with salmonids in the mountainous regions of the western United States.

Once again, I offer my sincerest thanks for the South Dakota Walleyes Unlimited Scholarship.

Sincerely,
